Penponds School Food donations for Christmas food boxes

As we know it's been a bit of a tough year for everyone, financially too! With it being Christmas and funds being tight for some of us, I really want to try and take pressure off families especially those who will struggle or find it hard to make sure there children are getting meals everyday while they are not at school.

As of Tuesday 17th November there will be a box placed in the bike shed for any food donations. Boxes will be made up for every family within the school that feels they need this little extra help over the Christmas holidays. We've seen a lot of businesses come together in the half term providing free lunches for families who needed it and it would be great for us as a community to come together to help those who need it.

If you feel you would like a Christmas food box please contact Mrs Lamb. Mrs lamb will be the only person who knows who the boxes are for. The only information that will be passed on is for how many people the food box is for (family of 4, family of 5 etc). The food boxes can then be collected in the last week of term discretely from Mrs lamb!

Any food donations would be appreciated very much over the next few weeks!! There is a list below of some EXAMPLES of things we can put in the boxes. If we do have any food left over then we will donate this to the local food bank from everyone at Penponds School.

Quote - Anticipation

Well, "said Pooh, "what I like best," and then he had to stop and think.

Because although Eating Honey was a very good thing to do, there was a moment just before you began to eat it which was better than when you were, but he didn't know what it was called.

Poem – Anticipation

My First Memory (of Librarians) Nikki Giovanni, 1943

A big room with heavy wooden tables that sat on a creaky wood floor
A line of green shades — bankers' lights — down the centre
Heavy oak chairs that were too low or maybe I was simply too short
For me to sit in and read
So my first book was always big

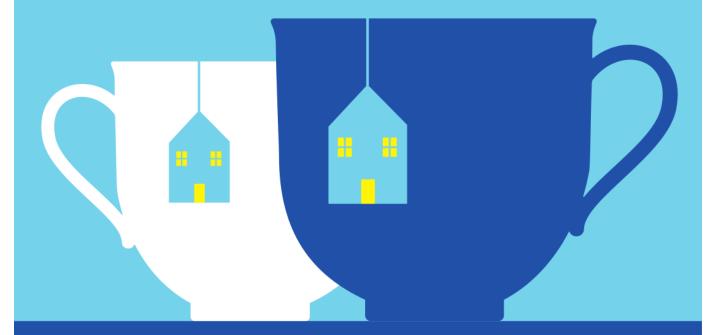

In the foyer up four steps a semi-circle desk presided To the left side the card catalogue
On the right newspapers draped over what looked like a quilt rack
Magazines face out from the wall

The welcoming smile of my librarian
The anticipation in my heart
All those books – another world – just waiting
At my fingertips

European Union Settlement Scheme

What is the European Union Settlement Scheme?

The European Union Settlement Scheme (EUSS) means that EU, EEA and Swiss citizens and their (non-)EU family members who are living in the UK and want to continue living here after June 2021 need to apply for settled status or pre-settled status through the EU Settlement Scheme by 30 June 2020. EUSS applicants must have been resident in the United Kingdom on/by 31 December 2020.

If successful they will be issued with settled or pre-settled status and will have the right to stay, work or study in the UK, use the NHS, claim state pension, rent a home. It is free to apply to the Home Office scheme and it has been running since March 2019.

There are an estimated 3,000 to 4,800 EU, EEA and Swiss nationals in Cornwall who have yet to apply for settled status. We estimate that around 20% of this group fall into the vulnerable category based on our experience of the client group in Cornwall, leaving us with a target group of 750 EEA nationals to locate and support with their EUSS applications.

Who are the EU Settlement Scheme (EUSS) team?

The team who currently work remotely and can advise clients by phone or through online face to face meetings. The team hope to soon return to office-based face to face appointments further to government guidance regarding the Covid-19 pandemic. Citizens Advice have offices in Penzance, Camborne, Falmouth, Penryn, Helston, Truro, St Austell, Bodmin, Launceston, Liskeard and Saltash.

How can clients access the service?

Clients seeking help with a Settled Status application will be able to access the service via our website, text service, phone, email or in person (once lockdown is eased) and via 3rd party referral from partner organisations.

- We have a free phone advice line. Please call 03333 440061.
- We have a dedicated local email address which can be used to refer a client to us: EUSS@citizensadvicecornwall.org.uk.
- We have a dedicated text number which can be used for referrals Please text ADVICE
 EUSS to 78866 and someone will ring you back. We will need confirmation that the client consents to being contacted by Citizens Advice to arrange the appointment. The client should be advised that Citizens Advice telephone numbers show as 'private caller' for reasons of confidentiality.

How is the client helped with their EU Settled Status application?

Their initial contact will be with a Generalist Adviser where the advice process starts with an initial exploration of the client's problems including a risk assessment of their needs, the urgency of their situation, their capacity and capability and the consequences of not getting help. This will help identify those who are able to complete the application themselves and signpost them to the relevant information and paperwork.

The more vulnerable requiring in-depth support including completing the application and finding additional help such as interpreters will be referred to one of the EUSS Engagement Officers who will work on a peripatetic basis to ensure that people can be seen in a location convenient to them. There will also be the opportunity to set up video conferencing either from the client's home if they have access to the internet and are comfortable setting it up, or through a third-party partner organisation — Citizens Advice Cornwall will supply equipment and training to other organisations to enable them to assist people to access our services digitally.

The close working relationship with the Generalist service will continue throughout the client's journey with Citizens Advice Cornwall. At any time, they will be able to access generalist advisers to seek help with housing, employment, relationship and consumer issues. In addition, they can be referred into the Help to Claim project for Universal Credit application or MASDAP for debt and money advice. For clients with young families, they will also have a direct link into the Money Matters project which helps with improving financial capability and budgeting.
